“Your Item Has Been Selected”

What Does This Mean?

Each year the District II Homecraft Director may visit our fair to select a few items for display at the O.A.A.S Annual Meeting that is held in February. Your exhibit could inspire others and be added to future prize books anywhere in Ontario. A picture may be taken during the fair and sent to OAAS so it will appear on the digital display at Convention.

JUNIOR FAIRBOARD

Are you between the ages of 10 and 18? Do you want to get involved in the organization of the fair and other fun activities in the area?

If so, come join the Junior Fairboard! This group was formed to give young people a platform to improve, showcase and provide volunteer services for the annual Lansdowne Fair. It is an informal and fun way to teach the basics of the fair and give back to the community.

If you would like to be part of the fun and join our team, please contact
